1. The training request for [redacted], submitted by you to this office on 26 August 1954 is returned herewith, disapproved by Colonel White, whose reasons for disapproval are set forth in Section 24 of the training request form.

2. Colonel White explained that he did not believe approval was indicated since it did not seem to him that this training could be considered as immediately necessary in terms of [redacted] job with the Management Staff. He said that his general philosophy is that if the special nature of the job being performed by the employee is such that he could not do it properly without the proposed training, then such training was definitely called for, but not otherwise.

3. This decision in no way affects [redacted] application for consideration under the Program for the Development of Junior Personnel.
